Just for youth entering gr. 6-12

Join the on-line club from our website, or sign up at the library. Keep track of the time you spend reading. Earn 1 “book buck” for every hour you spend reading. Spend your bucks at our super, special auction!

Whether you join the reading club or not, we invite you to attend the following events:

Book Discussion Group – June 23, 7 pm Students entering gr. 6-9 are invited to participate. We’ll begin Firegirl by Tony Abbott together and set up a 2nd date to continue the discussion after we’ve all read the book. Bring a copy of a book you’ve enjoyed and would recommend to others. Copies of Firegirl will be available for purchase at the library. If you attend the discussion, your money will be reimbursed and the book will be yours to keep. Please sign up in advance!

Gym Day! June 30, 6:30-8:30 (Raindate: July 1) Fun games from your childhood including some water games. Come alone or with a friend. Enjoy free snacks, too!

Christmas in July – July 25, 2-5 pm A secular celebration with a gift exchange, making tree decorations, games, etc. Bring a wrapped gift exchange item that you have spent $5 or less on. Food, of course!

Monty Python program – Aug. 2, 5-7 pm Are you a fan? Watch for more details.

Books for Bucks Auction – Aug. 22, 2-5 pm Bid against your friends for gift cards, games, silly stuff, etc. The more you read, the more bucks you’ll have. Food again!
