

Annual Nancy Corson Creative Writing Fund Check Presentation

The Friends of the William Jeanes Memorial Library established the Nancy Corson Creative Writing Fund in 2012, in honor of our former long-time Friends board member, who passed away in February of 2012. Nancy was an active and passionate member of the Friends, serving as Membership Chair and maintaining the membership records for many years. In recognition of Nancy's passion for writing, the Friends have committed to an annual contribution to this fund.
