Friends present $10,000 'Special, One-Time, Year-End' 2022 Gift to Library

The Friends of the Library were pleased to be able to present a 'Special, One-Time, Year-End' Gift to the Library Board in the amount of $10,000. The check was presented at the (virtual) December 21, 2022 meeting of the Library Board.

The library will use these funds to provide high-quality virtual talks with nationally known authors. The Library Speakers' Consortium organizes this program and prepares individual publicity material for each library. Patrons can register to view the program live, and when they register, they have the opportunity to submit their own questions, which will then be answered during the live broadcast. Here's an example: <https://libraryc.org/jeaneslibrary/25760>. These talks will usually occur in the afternoon or evening, and there will be several offered each month. They will allow us to bring big name authors to our community throughout the year. The library will provide additional cultural programs for all ages.
