

Annual Nancy Corson Creative Writing Fund Check Presentation

The Friends of the William Jeanes Memorial Library established the

Nancy Corson Creative Writing Fund

in 2012, in honor of our former long-time Friends board member, who passed away in February of 2012.

Nancy was an active and passionate member of the Friends, serving as Membership Chair and maintaining the membership records for many years.

In recognition of Nancy's passion for writing, the Friends have committed to an annual contribution to this fund.

Monies from the Nancy Corson Creative Writing Fund support Book and Poetry Writing Contests and programming for children, teens, and adults that encourage diverse forms of creative writing!

Members of the public are welcome to make contributions to the Nancy Corson Creative Writing Fund which is managed by the Library.

Checks should be made payable to "William Jeanes Memorial Library".

Please, note in memo on check: "for Nancy Corson Creative Writing Fund"
